

Historic 19th Century Jefferson Depot Village

Historic 19th Century Jefferson Depot Village 1890 becomes alive as you enter the gates into Ashtabula County's 19th century "living history village" in Jefferson, Ohio, the County Seat. Tour the original buildings filled with authentic furnishings. Walk in your ancestor's footsteps, learn early history, skills, enter the 1872 L.S.& M.S. Railroad Station,(on the National Register),1838 One-Room Schoolhouse, 1848 Church, 1860 pharmacy, 1845 Post Office, the 1879 Carriage House with the original 1824 Fitch Estate doors. Climb aboard the PRR Caboose, learn history of J. Warner, the 2nd resident here, in his tavern, get mail in the 1845 post office and more.

*FILMING ONLY***

Day-To-Day Operations of Business: Saturday & Sunday 1:00 - 4:00, Monday & Thursday 10:00 - 4:00

Location: 147 East Jefferson Street, Jefferson, Ohio 44047

Catering, Rentals and Services: Not Provided

Rules: Absolutely no smoking in or around the property.

Who's allowed at this Site Location: All ages

Booking Information: Contact 440-344-0167 or email:happygal@gmail.com

Location:
147 East Jefferson Street, Jefferson, Ohio 44047

